Learner Driver Log Book Check List

This Check List is compiled to assist in ensuring your Learner Log Book meets RMS standards.

Whilst all care has been taken in preparing this list - the responsibility for ensuring your Log Book is complete and accurate rests with you and your supervising driver/s.

- Ensure the front cover is attached - it contains your Name, Address etc.
- All entries are completed, in pen, not pencil.
- All entries are completed, DO NOT use dittos (").
- All the Learning Goals 1-20 (pages 14 – 38) are signed and dated. Including #5, even for automatic.
- Each entry has the licence number and signature of the Supervising Driver.
- Each page has your Learner Licence number on the top right.
- The hours/minutes are correct for each entry.
- The hours/minutes are correctly totalled on each page.
- Each page after the first has the running total correctly completed.
- You have at least 20 hours of night driving (between sunset and sunrise), and a total of at least 120 hours of driving recorded in your Log Book.
- If there are any errors, draw a single line through the incorrect entry, and write the correct entry above or below. Don't use liquid paper.
- The Declaration of Completion (page 109) is signed and dated.
- If you've had driving lessons, the Structured Lesson Record Keeper is completed (page 110).
- If you've completed the Safer Drivers Course, your Certificate is completed (page 110), signed and attached, and the 20 hours are recorded in your Learner Log Book.
- If you have filled your Log Book, and not completed 120 hours, then you need to attend a Service NSW/RMS office and obtain an additional Log Book. RMS will not accept photo copies of Log Book pages.
