Learner Driver Logbook Check List

This Check List has been compiled to assist in ensuring your Learner Logbook meets SNSW standards.

Whilst all care has been taken in preparing this check list - the responsibility for ensuring your Logbook is complete and accurate rests with you and your supervising driver/s.

- Ensure the front cover is attached - it contains your name, address etc.
- All entries are completed in pen, not pencil – refer page 3.
- Don't use liquid paper – refer page 3.
- If there are any errors, draw a single line through the incorrect entry, and write the correct entry above or below – don't scribble out the entry completely.
- All entries are completed. DO NOT use dittos (").
- All the Learning Goals 1-20 (pages 14 – 38) are signed and dated. Including #5 for automatic vehicles.
- Each entry has the licence number and signature of the Supervising Driver.
- Each page has your Learner Licence number on the top right.
- The hours/minutes are correct for each entry.
- The hours/minutes are correctly totalled on each page.
- Each page after the first has the running total correctly completed.
- You have at least 20 hours of night driving (between sunset and sunrise), and a total of at least 120 hours of driving recorded in your Logbook – refer page 34.
- The Declaration of Completion (p109) is signed and dated.
- If you've had driving lessons, the Structured Lesson Record Keeper is completed (p110).
- If you've completed the Safer Drivers Course, your Certificate is completed (p110), signed and attached, and the 20 hours are recorded in your Learner Logbook.
- If you have filled your Logbook, and not completed 120 hours, you need to attend Service NSW and obtain an additional Logbook. SNSW will not accept photocopies of Logbook pages.
